The moving party shall arrange the hearing after conferring with opposing counsel or a self-represented party with regard to conflicts. Dispositive motions and show cause hearings in unlawful detainer proceedings require a special set hearing and shall not be noted on the Civil Law and Motion Calendar.

(h) Courtesy Copies for Judge. A copy of all motions, briefs, affidavits and declarations, and other documentary evidence to be considered by the court, as well as a proposed order(s), shall be provided to

Alternatively, courtesy copies may be submitted electronically by emailing them to the Superior Court Administrator. All courtesy copies other than proposed orders shall be attached in Adobe PDF format and shall be sent in individual, labelled files; any submission that contains more than one pleading in a single attachment will be rejected. Depending on the volume of materials, the Court reserves the right to require electronically submitted courtesy copies to be followed with hard copies.

(3) Courtesy Copies Are Discarded. Courtesy copies are discarded after ten (10) days from the assigned hearing date, unless counsel or a self-represented party notify the Superior Court Administrator of a new hearing date and request that the courtesy copies be retained. If either party fails to do so, it will be the responsibility of counsel or a self-represented party to provide new courtesy copies to the court as provided herein.

(4) Proposed Orders. Courtesy copies of proposed orders shall be submitted electronically to the Superior Court Administrator in Word version in advance of the hearing. efficient use of judicial resources. The party requesting an order to shorten time shall give verbal and written notice as soon as possible to opposing parties regardless of when pleadings are prepared and provided. Such motions shall contain a written certification that self-represented parties or attorneys were notified of the time and place of requesting the order to shorten time, or the reasons why such notice was not given. The court may impose terms, including an award of attorney fees, where the court later finds there was insufficient need for shortening time. See also, LCR 5(a)(1).

[Rule Amended Effective September 1, 2021]

LCR 10. FORM OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS.

(2) One-sided Printing. All papers filed with the Court shall comply with GR 14, including the requirement that the writing or printing shall appear on only one side of the page.

(3) Tabs. There shall be no tabs on filed documents. Exhibits or sections may be denoted or divided by a separator page. Any tabs included in a filed document will be discarded by the Clerk without notice to the party/counsel. Judge's courtesy copies may contain tabs for ease of reference. If tabs are included in courtesy copies, they should also be included in copies provided to opposing parties/counsel.

(4) Typing/Color Photographs. All court documents submitted for filing must be typed or printed legibly using black or dark blue ink. Color photographs may not be filed because they do not produce legible scanned images. Color copies of photos may be provided to the Judge in courtesy copies, but if color copies are provided, identical color copies shall be provided to opposing parties/counsel.

(5) Conformed Copies. Court documents served on opposing counsel or a self-represented party shall be fully conformed as to signatures, dates signed, date filed if known, and all other information as it appears on the filed original. If a party serves court documents that are otherwise fully conformed, but without the date of filing on the documents, the serving party shall notify the receiving party, as soon as practical after filing, of the date the served documents were filed.

(6) Page Limits. Parties are encouraged to limit their submissions to the pertinent legal issues and facts before the court for consideration and to avoid redundancy in submissions. The court imposes no standard page limits for briefs or declarations, but reserves the right to impose specific limitations in individual cases where necessary for efficient judicial administration.

(7) Page Count. Page one of each pleading filed with the Court shall on page one identify the total number of pages being filed including all attachments or exhibits. It is preferred that placement of such identification be centered in the lower margin as follows: TOTAL PAGES FILED - _____.

(8) Clerk's Action Required. Parties must indicate in the caption of any document requiring the County Clerk to calendar a hearing or otherwise take an action: "Clerk's Action Required."

(10) Unsuitable Materials Filed as Pleadings or Documents. The format requirements of GR 14 shall apply to motions and attachments to pleadings and other papers filed with the clerk. Any item presented to and accepted by the clerk for filing that does not comply with GR 14 and is not a document, such as compact disks, digital video disks, audio tapes, thumb drives, and similar devices containing recorded information, shall be treated as an exhibit and may be converted to an exhibit without further order of the court. In order to make such recorded information part of the permanent court record, they must be transcribed by the filing party and filed as a document in paper format. All exhibits filed with the clerk are subject to the Secretary of State's exhibit retention schedule. The clerk has the authority to reject filings that are not presented in proper form required by rules or practices pursuant to CR 5(e) and GR 14.

Nothing herein stated shall modify a party's responsibility to promptly

LCR 40. ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) (No Local Rules)

(b) Methods.

(1) Note for Trial Assignment. All notes for trial assignment on contested cases shall, in addition to counsel's or a self-represented party's estimate of time needed for trial, indicate the issues which counsel or the self-represented party believe will be in dispute, and shall contain the names and addresses of all attorneys, guardians ad litem, or self-represented parties. Counsel and self-represented parties shall certify that the issues are joined. If opposing counsel or self-represented parties dispute that the issues are joined or disagree with the statement of issues, do not believe the case is yet ready for trial, or have any other objection to the information contained in the Notice of Trial Assignment, opposing counsel or the self-represented parties shall, prior to the trial assignment date, file and serve an Objection to the Notice of Trial Assignment and note the matter for hearing on the appropriate motion calendar. This will remove the matter from the Superior Court Administrator's trial assignment docket. Counsel and self-represented parties are urged to request sufficient time for these matters. Overestimation is preferred to underestimation of time needed. The form of the Note for Trial Assignment is set forth in Appendix C. Time shall be computed as set forth in Civil Rule 6 and LCR 6 herein.

(2) Conflict Dates. Counsel shall file a Notice of Conflict Dates with the Clerk of the court and provide a copy to the Court Administrator on or before 9 a.m. of the date set for trial assignment. Conflict dates shall be limited to previously scheduled vacations and trial dates. The form of the Notice of Conflict Dates is set forth in Appendix D.

(3) Trial Date Assignment. The Superior Court Administrator will assign cases a specific trial date and notify the parties by mail and/or e-mail of such date. Counsel and self-represented parties shall not appear for the trial assignment calendar. If more than one matter is set for trial for the same day, counsel and self-represented parties shall be prepared for trial on the date set regardless of the order in which the cases are set.

(c) Preferences. All matters are subject to the established rule that criminal cases, juvenile proceedings, and civil proceedings entitled to priority settings take precedence over all other matters and may at times cause postponement of lesser prioritized cases.

(d) (No Local Rules)

(e) Continuances. A trial date may be stricken or continued by agreement of the parties at any time upon presentation of an order to the court. A motion to continue a trial shall be made in writing and shall be noted for consideration on or before the readiness hearing. The Court will only consider a motion for continuance noted for consideration after the readiness hearing if good cause is established that the motion could not have been brought sooner. A motion to continue a trial on the ground of the absence of evidence shall only be made upon declaration showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it. The court may also require the moving party to state upon declaration the evidence which they expect to obtain; and if the adverse party admits that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given in the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be continued. The court, upon its allowance of the motion, may impose terms or conditions upon the moving party.

(f) (No Local Rules)

(g) Settlement of Cases Set for Trial. Notice shall be given immediately to the Superior Court Administrator if any case which has been assigned a trial date is settled or will not be tried for any reason whatsoever. If this rule is violated and the court incurs unnecessary expenses, such as jury expenses, the court may, in its discretion, assess such costs to the parties.

(h) Confirmation of Trials. It shall be the responsibility of the parties to confirm that their trial will proceed on the scheduled trial date. Confirmation shall be made by telephone to the Superior Court Administrator's office (360) 370-7480 no earlier than seven (7) or later than two (2) court days prior to the scheduled trial date.

The Court reserves the right to limit submissions by page number where filings do not adhere to these principles.

(c) Filing of Parties' Financial Declarations and Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

At least sixty (60) days prior to trial, each party shall serve on the opposing party:

(1) A Financial Declaration, using (FL All Family 131), in all cases involving a request for child support, maintenance or attorney's fees. The Declaration shall also be filed with the court;

(2) A Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities, including both marital and separate assets and liabilities of any kind, in the form set forth in Appendix B, in any case involving the division of assets and/or debts. The Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities shall not be filed with the court; and

All parties have a duty to supplement the financial information when additional information becomes available.

(d) Self-Represented Parties – Review of Parenting Plans and Child Support Orders. In any action, including modification proceedings, in which the residential care or child support of a minor child or children is at issue and in which none of the parties are represented by counsel, any proposed parenting plan or residential schedule and any proposed child support documents, including the child support schedule worksheet, shall first be reviewed, approved as to form and initialed by the courthouse facilitator or by an attorney acting as a third-party neutral in accordance with RPC 2.4. Provided, however, this requirement shall not apply to a proposed temporary parenting plan or residential schedule in cases where there has been a recent and substantial change in circumstances that has resulted in a serious and imminent threat to the health, safety or welfare of the child(ren).

(e) Judicial Information System Background Checks. Prior to presenting a permanent parenting plan or residential schedule to the court for approval, the party or parties shall comply with RCW 26.09.182 by submitting a completed Judicial Information System (JIS) Background Check form to the San Juan County Clerk. Such request shall include the names and dates of birth of all persons residing in each residence and must be submitted no fewer than 5 days prior to the date of presentation of the final parenting plan. Upon receipt of a completed JIS Background Check form, the Clerk shall complete a search of the Judicial Information System for the existence of any information and proceedings relevant to the placement of the child. This search shall be performed no more than 10 days prior to the proposed date of presentation of the permanent parenting plan. The results of such search shall be available to the judicial officer presiding over the entry of the permanent parenting plan at least 2 court days prior to the proposed presentation date. Per Chapter 2.28 RCW (as amended by SHB 1617, Laws of 2015), if the Court relies upon information in the results of the search in rendering a decision, a copy of the results and the JIS Background Check form must be filed as a confidential document, within the court file, with any confidential contact information such as addresses, phone numbers, or other information that might disclose the location or whereabouts of any person redacted from the document or documents. The parties may note entry of final documents by joinder, agreement, or default, including the required jurisdictional testimony, on the regular Civil Law and Motion Calendar. Only one party is required to appear in order to provide the required jurisdictional testimony.

(b) Jurisdictional Declaration in Lieu of Testimony. If a decree is entered under RCW 26.09 by joinder, agreement, or default, the parties may elect to present jurisdictional testimony pursuant to a "Request for Entry of Decree and Declaration of Jurisdictional Facts," using the form set forth in Appendix G, in lieu of a party's testimony by appearance in court. Neither party need be represented by counsel in order to submit a Request for Entry of Decree and Declaration or Jurisdictional Facts to support entry of final documents. If the Request for Entry of Decree and Declaration of Jurisdictional Facts form is used, the parties may present the final documents for entry ex parte rather than appearing in Court.

[New Rule Effective September 1, 2021]

LCR 92. PARENTING SEMINARS

(a) Applicable Cases. This rule shall apply to all cases under Chapters 26.09, 26.26, and 11.130 (minor guardianships) RCW which require a parenting plan or residential schedule for minor children, including major modifications and paternity actions in which paternity has been established.

(b) Mandatory Attendance. Except as provided in Section (f) below, within ninety (90) days of filing an appearance, answer or other responsive pleading in this action, all parties shall attend a court-approved parent education seminar on the effects of family transitions on children, unless the parties have previously attended such a course.

(c) Certificate of Completion. Upon completion of the seminar, each party shall file with the court the seminar completion certificate provided by the sponsoring agency or provider. Additionally, a copy of the certificate of completion shall be provided to the judge at presentation of final documents.

(d) Fees. Each party attending a seminar shall pay a fee charged by the approved provider and authorized by the court.

(e) Seminar Providers. The court shall establish standards for parenting seminars and shall approve seminar providers. A list of approved parenting seminars shall be available from the Superior Court Administrator, Court Facilitator, and County Clerk. If a parenting seminar is not included on the list, then the court, upon proper motion, may allow other seminars to fulfill this requirement on a case-by-case basis.

(f) Waiver/Special Consideration.

Pursuant to RCW 26.12.172:

(1) In no case shall opposing parties be required to attend a parenting seminar together; and

(2) Upon a showing of domestic violence or abuse which would not require mutual decision-making, pursuant to RCW 26.09.191, or if the court determines that attendance at a seminar is not in the children's best interest, the court shall either waive the requirement of completion of the seminar or allow participation in an alternative parenting seminar if available; and

(3) The Court may otherwise waive the requirement upon a showing of good cause.

(g) Exchange of Parenting Plans. At least sixty (60) days prior to trial, each party shall provide the other parent with a Proposed Parenting Plan, if they have not already done so.

(h) Failure to Comply. Willful refusal to participate in a parenting seminar or willful delay in completing the parenting seminar may result in a finding of contempt and imposition of sanctions. The Court may decline to enter finalization documents until both parents have completed the seminar. [See Order to Show Cause Re: Parenting Class in Appendix F.]

[New Rule Effective September 1, 2021]

LCR 93. MANDATORY MEDIATION

(a) Mediation in Contested Cases. Except as provided in Section (b) below, in all cases described in LCR 89(a) having unresolved issues, all parties shall in good faith engage in mediation with a court-approved mediator in an effort to resolve the case. In cases where parenting issues exist, the mediation shall not occur until both parties have completed the parenting seminar required in LCR 92. Mediation shall be completed at least sixty (60) days prior to the scheduled trial date.

(b) When Mediation is Not Required. Mediation shall not be required as provided in Section (a) in the following cases:

(1) For good cause shown upon motion and approval by the court; or

(2) Where a domestic violence restraining order or protection order (excluding ex parte orders) involving the parties has been entered by a court at any time within the previous twelve (12) months;

(3) Where a domestic violence no contact order exists pursuant to RCW 10.99;

(4) Where the court upon motion finds that domestic abuse has occurred between the parties and that such abuse would interfere with arm's-length mediation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may by motion seek a court order requiring mandatory mediation in a case where it would not be required as set forth in (b)(2), (b)(3) or (b)(4) above if the moving party believes that the parties would be able to mediate their dispute at arm's-length under the particular circumstances of the case.

(c) Settlement Conference. If, after mediation in good faith or where mediation is not required, there remain unresolved issues, the parties may participate in a settlement conference, pursuant to LCR 16(d).

(d) Effect on Court Proceedings. Mediation does not stay or otherwise affect the rights and duties of the parties established by statute, court rule, or court order. The court may enter temporary orders and the parties may conduct discovery prior to or during the mediation process.

(e) Cost of Mediation. Mediators shall be paid by the parties in accordance with the agreement of the parties, or in the absence of agreement, as determined by the Court.

(f) Responsibility for Compliance. The parties shall be responsible for arranging for and completing all mediation requirements established under this rule.

(g) Failure to Comply. Willful refusal to participate in mediation or willful delay in completing mediation may result in a finding of contempt and imposition of sanctions.

(h) Identity of Mediators. The Superior Court Administrator shall maintain a list of approved mediators, either persons or agencies, for distribution to the public. The list shall contain the following information: each mediator's name, organization, if any, address and telephone number, and fee schedule. The parties are not required to use a mediator on said list.

(i) Selection of Mediator; Right of Mediator to Decline. The parties may either agree to a mediator or the Court shall appoint a mediator upon the motion of either party. A mediator has the right to decline to serve in a particular case. If a mediator declines to serve, the parties shall select a different mediator or move the court to do so.

(j) Authority of Mediator. The mediator has the authority to determine the time, place, manner, and duration of mediation. In appropriate cases, the mediator shall have the authority to terminate the mediation prior to completion.

(k) Attendance at Mediation. The parties shall personally attend all mediation sessions, unless the mediator permits telephonic or other attendance. The mediator shall have the authority to require other persons to attend.

(l) Declaration of Completion. Within seven (7) days of completion of mediation, a declaration that mediation has been completed shall be filed with the court by the mediator. The mediator shall advise counsel and the parties of the results of mediation in writing. The mediator shall advise the court only whether an agreement has been reached on some or all of the issues.

(m) Confidentiality. The work product of the mediator and all communications during the mediation shall be privileged and confidential and not subject to compulsory disclosure. The mediator shall not appear to testify in any court proceedings. See RCW 5.60.070.

LCR 94. GUARDIANS AD LITEM

[See Superior Court Guardian ad Litem Rules (GALR) for general responsibilities of guardians ad litem.]

(a) Appointments of Guardian ad Litem. All guardians ad litem shall be appointed as set forth in the policies and procedures for guardians ad litem, approved by the judges and maintained by the Superior Court Administrator's Office.

(b) Grievance Procedures.

(1) Submission of Complaints. All complaints made by or against guardians ad litem shall be in writing and shall be submitted to the Superior Court Administrator. All complaints must bear the signature, name and address of the person filing the complaint.

(2) Review of Complaint. Upon receipt of a written complaint, the Superior Court Administrator shall refer the complaint to the judge for review.

(3) Findings and Action of Complaint. Upon review of the complaint, the judge shall either:

(A) Make a finding that the complaint is with regard to a case then pending in the court and decline to review the complaint and so inform the complainant. In such instances, the judge shall advise the complainant that the complaint may only be addressed in the context of the case at bar, either by seeking the removal of the guardian ad litem or by contesting the information or recommendation contained in the guardian ad litem's report or testimony; or

(B) Make a finding that the complaint has no merit on its face, and decline to review the complaint and so inform the complainant; or

(C) Make a finding that the complaint appears to have merit and request a written response from the guardian ad litem or other person against whom the complaint is brought within ten (10) business days, detailing the specific issues in the complaint to which the judge desires a response. The judge shall provide the guardian ad litem or other person against whom the complaint is brought with a copy of the original complaint. In considering whether any complaint against a guardian ad litem has merit, the judge shall consider whether the complaint alleges the guardian ad litem has (i) violated a code of conduct, (ii) misrepresented his or her qualifications to serve as a guardian ad litem, (iii) breached the confidentiality of the parties, (iv) falsified information in a report to the court or in testimony before the court, (v) failed, when required, to report abuse of a child, (vi) communicated with a judicial officer ex parte concerning a case for which he or she is serving as guardian ad litem, (vii) violated state or local laws or court rules, or (viii) taken or failed to take any other action which would reasonably place the suitability of the person to serve as a guardian ad litem in question.

(4) Response and Findings on Complaint. Upon receipt of a written response to a complaint, the judge shall make a finding as to each of the specific issues in the complaint to which the judge desires a response, as delineated in the judge's letter to the person against whom the complaint is brought. Such findings shall state that either there is no merit to the issue based upon the response or that there is merit to the issue.

(5) Forms of Discipline. The judge shall have the authority to issue a written admonition or a written reprimand, refer the guardian ad litem (if the complaint is against a guardian ad litem) to additional training, or suspend or remove the guardian ad litem from the registry. In considering an appropriate form of discipline, the judge shall take into consideration any prior complaints that resulted in an admonition, reprimand, referral to training, or suspension or removal from the registry. If the guardian ad litem against whom the discipline is directed is listed on more than one registry, the suspension or removal may apply to each registry the guardian ad litem is listed on, at the discretion of the judge.

(6) Notice to Complainant and Person Against Whom Complaint is Brought. The complainant and the person against whom the complaint is brought shall be notified in writing of the judge's decision following receipt of the response to the complaint.

(7) Confidentiality. A complaint shall be deemed confidential for all purposes unless the judge reviewing the complaint has determined that the complaint has merit. Any record of complaints filed which are not deemed by the judge to have merit shall be confidential, and shall not be disclosed except by court order, upon good cause shown, after the person against whom the complaint was brought has been given notice and an opportunity to be heard.

(8) Complaint Processing Standards. Complaints shall be resolved within twenty-five (25) days of the date of receipt of the written complaint if a case is pending. Complaints shall be resolved within sixty (60) days of the date of receipt of the written complaint if the complaint is filed after the conclusion of a case.

(9) Removal from Registry. When a guardian ad litem is removed from the court's registry pursuant to the disposition of a grievance hereunder, the Superior Court Administrator shall send a notice of such removal to the Administrative Office of the Courts. When the Superior Court Administrator receives notice from the Administrative Office of the Courts that a guardian ad litem on the court's registry has been removed from the registry of any other Washington superior court, the Superior Court Administrator shall advise the judge of such removal.

(b) Hearings. The Clerk will not unilaterally note any TEDRA hearings. Parties shall note all hearings consistent with LCR 6 and CR 56 and at least 20 days after filing and service of the TEDRA petition. If a hearing is reasonably anticipated to take fifteen minutes or less, it may be noted on the Civil Law and Motion Calendar. If a hearing is reasonably anticipated to take longer than fifteen minutes, it shall be specially set pursuant to LCR 8(g). The parties must clearly indicate in their petition and/or answer if they do not intend for the initial hearing to be a hearing on the merits to resolve all issues of fact and law. If an initial hearing is not intended to resolve all issues of fact and law, the issues to be addressed at said hearing shall be identified clearly in the briefing. Trials shall be scheduled through filing a note for trial assignment pursuant to LCR 40.

[Replaced with LCrR 8.2]

LCrR 4.11. REMOTE PRETRIAL APPEARANCE

(1) When Permitted. Preliminary appearances, bail hearings, and trial settings, which are permitted to be conducted by video pursuant to CrR 3.4, may be conducted by video on the Court’s Microsoft Teams platform so long as: (a) the defendant, counsel, and the Judge may all see and hear each other at all times; (b) the hearing may be viewed on screen in the Superior Court Courtroom; and (c) the defendant and defense counsel have a means to communicate confidentially or defendant waives the right to communicate confidentially in an individual hearing. The parties and counsel may appear by telephone or video via the Court’s Microsoft Teams platform for any other pretrial hearing at which the Court has authorized remote attendance. Pursuant to CrR 3.4(b), a defendant’s remote appearance at arraignment is at the discretion of the Court. If a defendant requests remote appearance at arraignment, that request should be made at the first reasonable opportunity, including at the arraignment hearing noted by the State, and the Court will exercise its discretion to determine whether remote appearance is acceptable, rescheduling the hearing if necessary to facilitate an appearance in person. Remote appearance for entry of a guilty plea requires agreement by the parties in addition to the approval of the Court.

(2) Remote Hearing Sessions. Superior Court Administration will schedule Microsoft Teams sessions for all hearings and will make connection information for such hearings available on the Superior Court website (with the exception of hearings for domestic violence protection orders, for which Microsoft Teams hearing information is not publicly available and will be provided by the Superior Court Administrator only to the parties and counsel). The Courtroom will join the Microsoft Teams session for all hearings unless otherwise ordered by the Court in an individual case. The Microsoft Teams platform is the only way to appear remotely for a hearing. The Courtroom remains physically open to the parties, counsel, and the public in addition to remote attendance, unless expressly ordered by the Court.

(3) Remote Hearing Procedures. Any person appearing for a hearing remotely shall follow the Court’s Remote Appearance Procedures posted on the San Juan County Superior Court website, which may be amended from time to time. In all cases, persons appearing remotely shall: (a) appear in a location as quiet as possible and with background that is without distractions and appropriate for Court; (b) appear in attire appropriate for the Court setting; (c) mute your device until your cases is called, and during their hearing except when it is your turn to speak or as directed by the Judge; and (d) treat all persons present with the same respect and decorum as you would if you were physically present in the Courtroom.

Each set of exhibits should be submitted to the Clerk with an exhibit list in hard copy and electronic Word version prepared by the submitting party, on the Clerk's form, as available on the Clerk's webpage, or on request, as provided in Appendix E. The party should include pre-assigned numbers as described above, as well as the description of the exhibit that party intends the Clerk to use on the master exhibit list. Please consider when preparing exhibits that the Clerk will mark them in the lower right corner with a 1" by 3" label.
- (3) Courtesy Copies of Exhibits Required. Counsel for each party shall provide a courtesy copy of each documentary exhibit to the Judge at or before the time an exhibit is offered for admission.
- (4) Coordination and/or Stipulation by the Parties. The Court encourages counsel to raise potential issues regarding management of trial exhibits at the pretrial conference or by motion as deemed appropriate by the parties. The parties may confer in advance about exhibits, including to reduce duplication in exhibits being marked for identification, and to create a joint exhibit list with consecutive numbering if desired. If the parties create a joint exhibit list with consecutive numbering, they need not use the pre-assigned exhibit numbers. Generally, assets having an individual value of more than $500 should be listed separately. The proposed property division should conclude with a list of liabilities to be assumed by each party, including, except as may be disclosed above, the name of the creditor, amount of the monthly payment, the unpaid balance on each such debt and the total amount of all such liabilities to be assumed by each party.

Deduction of the total amount of liabilities to be assumed by each party from the net total fair market value of the community property awarded to such party will constitute the net fair market values for your proposed property division. COURT DECORUM AND PRACTICE GUIDELINES

PREFACE

The pursuit of justice is a serious undertaking and conduct during the litigation process, both within and outside the courtroom, must at all times satisfy the appearance as well as the reality of fairness and equal treatment. Dignity, order and decorum are indispensable to the proper administration of justice.

A trial is an adversary proceeding, and lawyers must advocate for their clients' positions. However, conduct that may be characterized as discriminatory, abusive, or obstructive impedes the fundamental goal of resolving disputes rationally, peacefully and efficiently. Such conduct tends to delay and often to deny justice.

Attorneys are privileged to participate in the administration of justice in a unique way, and are responsible to their own consciences, to their clients, to one another, and to the public to conduct themselves in a manner which will facilitate, and never detract from, the administration of justice.

A trial is a truth-seeking process designed to resolve human and societal problems in a rational and efficient manner. A lawyer's conduct should be characterized at all times by personal courtesy and professional integrity in the fullest sense of those terms. A judge's conduct should be characterized at all times by courtesy, patience, and fairness toward all participants. The courts belong to the people of this state. The guidelines are intended to facilitate access to the courts for the fair resolution of disputes and should never be applied to deny access.

Application

The purpose of these guidelines is to provide lawyers, judges, and parties with a reasonable standard of conduct in judicial proceedings. However, these guidelines are not intended to homogenize conduct or remove individuality from the courtroom. To facilitate professional growth and foster voluntary compliance with these guidelines, the WSBA Court Congestion and Improvement Committee periodically review these guidelines. Comments are considered by the committee and changes are incorporated as needed.

All participants in judicial proceedings should voluntarily adhere to these guidelines. These guidelines shall not be used as a basis for litigation or for sanctions or penalties. Nothing in these guidelines supersedes or detracts from existing codes or rules of conduct or discipline or alters existing standards by which lawyer negligence may be determined.

COURT DECORUM

I. General Court Hearing Decorum

- A. Always be prompt.
- B. Stand when the judge enters or leaves the courtroom.
- C. Do not make personal attacks on opposing counsel.
- D. Do not interrupt. Wait your turn.
- E. Enhancing courtroom decorum is a cooperative venture among bench and bar. It is appropriate to call to the attention of opposing counsel any perceived violations of these guidelines out of the presence of the jury.
- F. After the court has ruled, ask the court's permission before arguing further.
- G. Advise clients and witnesses of the formalities of the court, the appropriate guidelines, and any rulings on motions in limine. Encourage their cooperation. This applies both to attorneys and to self-represented parties.

H. If there is a live microphone, remember not to confer with others or rustle papers near the microphone. With the importance of making an accurate court record, be mindful of speaking into the microphone in an audible and clear fashion.

I. Courtrooms equipped for recording may require special precautions, such as remaining near a microphone.

J. Treat everyone in the proceeding with fairness, consideration, and respect. Refrain from conduct that discriminates on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, creed, gender identity, age, disability, sexual orientation, or marital status.

II. General Trial Conduct

A. Offers of and requests for stipulations are appropriate to facilitate the presentation of a case, but should not be employed to communicate to the jury a party's willingness or unwillingness to stipulate.

B. During trial, maintain appropriate respect for witnesses, jurors, and opposing counsel, avoiding informality. Address adults by their titles or surnames unless permission has been given to use first names. Avoid referring to adults by biased and demeaning expressions or labels such as "girl," "gal," or "boy." Address jurors individually or by name only during voir dire.

C. Treat jurors with respect and dignity, avoiding fawning, flattery, or pretended solicitude. Suggestions regarding the comfort or convenience of jurors should generally be made to the court out of the jury's hearing.

D. During the opening statement and argument of opposing counsel, never inappropriately divert the attention of the court or the jury.

E. Avoid expressing an opinion to the jury about the testimony of a witness, a ruling of the court, or argument of counsel through exaggerated facial expressions or other contrived conduct.

F. When practical, give the court advance notice of any legal issue that is likely to be complex, difficult, and which you expect to require argument.

G. Do not argue the case in the opening statement.

H. Counsel should not express to the jury personal knowledge or personal opinions about the evidence.

I. Address your remarks to the court, not to opposing counsel except when extending necessary courtesies, e.g., thank you.

J. Only attorney, parties, court personnel, and witnesses, when called to the stand, are permitted within the bar of the courtroom, unless otherwise allowed by the court.

III. Examination of Witnesses

A. When examining a witness, avoid undue repetition of the witness' answer.

B. Make objections for evidentiary reasons without delivering a speech or guiding a witness. Recapitulate testimony only as needed to put an objection in context.

C. If a witness was on the stand at a recess or adjournment, have the witness ready to proceed when the court is resumed.

D. Attempt to anticipate witness scheduling problems and discuss them with opposing counsel and the court. Try to schedule witnesses in advance of trial.

IV. Exhibits and Documents

A. Premark exhibits with the clerk for identification prior to trial where appropriate and in accordance with the applicable rules.

B. Return all exhibits to the clerk at each adjournment.

C. Whenever referring to an exhibit, identify the exhibit by its exhibit number.
