2021 Notice of Funding Available

Very Low Income Housing (2060) Grant Funds

Not for profit organizations or developers involved in acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, and operation of housing affordable to people with very low incomes are eligible to apply for funds administered by the San Juan County Housing Advisory Committee.

Funding is not available for individuals purchasing or rehabbing their own homes.

June 30, 2021 is the deadline for application. $25,000 is currently available. A copy of the application form is attached.

The funds may be disbursed either as grants or loans, and there is no limit on individual grant amounts. The funds must be used for acquisition, construction, or rehabilitation of housing developments or units within housing developments for persons with incomes below 50% of the area's median annual income.
