Advisory Votes

Advisory Vote No. 39

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5974

The legislature increased, without a vote of the people, the tax on aircraft fuel from 11 cents to 18 cents per gallon, costing $14 million in its first ten years, for government spending.

This tax increase should be:

- Repealed
 Maintained

Advisory Vote No. 40

Engrossed Substitute House Bill 2076

The legislature imposed, without a vote of the people, premiums on "transportation network companies" to provide workers compensation to their drivers, costing an indeterminate amount in its first ten years, for government spending.

This tax increase should be:

- Repealed
 Maintained

San Juan County Charter Review Commission

Charter Amendment Proposition No. 1

The San Juan County Charter Review Commission submitted Proposition No. 1 concerning a new position of Public Advocate. If adopted, the measure would establish a new position entitled "Public Advocate" to provide an additional resource to receive, accept and respond to public questions; assist the public with county systems; and listen to public concerns and complaints; but the Public Advocate could not give legal advice and would refer whistleblower complaints to the appropriate county department or official.

Should this measure be:

- Approved
 Rejected

Charter Amendment Proposition No. 2

The San Juan County Charter Review Commission submitted Proposition No. 2 concerning the Charter Review Commission. If adopted, the County Charter would be amended to require a budget and staffing resources for the Commission each time it is formed; would provide that proposals for the ballot are submitted to the Auditor instead of the County Council; provide for early dissolution by vote of the Commission and notice; and require the Prosecuting Attorney to provide the Commission with information about the Commission's duties and other topics.

Should this measure be:

- Approved
 Rejected

Charter Amendment Proposition No. 3

The San Juan County Charter Review Commission submitted Proposition No. 3 concerning ranked-choice voting for certain County officers. If adopted, and if the Washington Legislature passes a law that permits ranked-choice voting, this measure would require the use of ranked-choice voting for the offices of Sheriff, Treasurer, Clerk, Auditor, Assessor, Prosecuting Attorney, and members of the County Council; and certain existing county election procedures would be eliminated if ranked-choice voting is used in San Juan County.

Should this measure be:

- Approved
 Rejected

Charter Amendment Proposition No. 4

The San Juan County Charter Review Commission submitted Proposition No. 4 concerning initiatives and referendums. If adopted, this measure would amend Title 6 of the County Charter to reduce the number of qualified signatures required for San Juan County initiatives and referendum petitions from 15 percent to 8 percent of the votes cast in the county in the last election for Governor.

Should this measure be:

- Approved
 Rejected

San Juan County

Proposition No. 1 - Road Fund Regular Property Tax Levy Lid Lift

The San Juan County Council adopted Resolution No. 20-2022 concerning a road levy lid lift. This proposition would authorize the road levy rate at $1.00 per $1,000 assessed value, which is estimated to be 44 cents per $1,000 assessed value above the rate for 2023; and thereafter the approved levy dollar amount will be used to compute the limitations for subsequent levies subject to RCW 84.55; and the increased revenue will be used to maintain roads and marine facilities, repair storm damage, and enhance roads for pedestrians and cyclists.

Shall this proposition be approved?

- Yes
 No
